

Session C: H.E. Subject Centre

HEA explained.

Focuses on student experience, 'It matters to students, it matters to us'.

Subject Centres – based in institutions across the UK.

DFES 2003-2004 – Project on entrepreneurship.

22 of 24 active in entrepreneurship.

Engineering

- Liz Reed – info on case studies
- 6-7 case studies of entrepreneurship teaching within universities.
- 34 resources in database for free use.
- Projects – teaching IP to engineers.
- New journal – engineering education

200 contacts in engineering department - for distributing information on entrepreneurship and mapping of teaching in engineering.

Palantine

DFES project for creative enterprises

Project – creative entrepreneurship in HE conference – Birmingham Institution of A & D –

Focused on teaching – publication soon available

Lack of teaching materials for employability

MMU & Coventry – dvd and report on creative enterprise

More on dance – where do graduates go – mapping exercise of who does what + case study – NCGE

Symposium 16th November – interactive symposium

BMAF

TRIBE – online resources

- teaching + learning

External examiner database

International journal of Management Education

- early accessible publications about teaching and learning

Art, Design, History of Art, Design and Media

- vigorous network of people
- research project with NESTA + SNAS – David Clews – creative entrepreneurship – entrepreneurship education in Art, Design and Media.